Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai (and the two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses' hand when he came down from the mountain), that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him. So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. Then Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them. Afterward all the children of Israel came near, and he gave them as commandments all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. But whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with Him, he would take the veil off until he came out; and he would come out and speak to the children of Israel whatever he had been commanded. And whenever the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone, then Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

The Transfiguration of our Lord

Psalm 97

THE LORD is King, the earth may be glad thereof; * yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof.

Clouds and darkness are round about him: * righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his seat.

There shall go a fire before him, * and burn up his enemies on every side.

His lightnings gave shine unto the world: * the earth saw it, and was afraid.

The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD; * at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

The heavens have declared his righteousness, * and all the peoples have seen his glory.

Confounded be all they that worship carved images, and that delight in vain gods: * worship him, all ye gods.

Sion heard of it, and rejoiced; and the daughters of Judah were glad, * because of thy judgments, O LORD.

For thou, LORD, art higher than all that are in the earth: * thou art exalted far above all gods.

O ye that love the LORD, see that ye hate the thing which is evil: * the Lord preserveth the souls of his saints; he shall deliver them from the hand of the ungodly.

There is sprung up a light for the righteous, * and joyful gladness for such as are true-hearted.

Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; * and give thanks for a remembrance of his holiness.

The Transfiguration of our Lord

A reading from St. Peter's Second Catholic Epistle, chapter 1, beginning at the 13th verse.

Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.
