

Sunday Next Before Easter or Palm Sunday

The New Testament is written in the second chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians, beginning at the 5th verse.

This passage may be found in the Book of Common Prayer on page 134.

(Pause to allow parishioners to find the page.)

LET this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God; but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name; that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that JESUS CHRIST IS LORD, to the glory of God the Father.

This is the word of the Lord.
