

Resurrection Sunday (Easter Day) 1

The Old Testament is written in the 25th chapter of the Prophet Isaiah, beginning at the first verse.

This passage may be found in the pew bible on page 810.

(Pause to allow parishioners to find the page.)

O Lord, You are my God.
I will exalt You, I will praise Your name, For You have done wonderful things; Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

For You have made a city a ruin,
A fortified city a ruin, A palace of foreigners to be a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.

Therefore the strong people will glorify
You; The city of the terrible nations will fear You.

For You have been a strength to the poor, A strength to the needy in his distress, A refuge from the storm, A shade from the heat; For the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

You will reduce the noise of aliens,
As heat in a dry place; As heat in the shadow of a cloud, The song of the terrible ones will be diminished.

And in this mountain, The Lord of hosts will make for all people, A feast of choice pieces, A feast of wines on the lees, Of fat things full of marrow,
Of well-refined wines on the lees.

And He will destroy on this mountain
The surface of the covering cast over all people, And the veil that is spread over all nations.

He will swallow up death forever,
And the Lord God will wipe away tears
from all faces; The rebuke of His people
He will take away from all the earth;
For the Lord has spoken.

And it will be said in that day:
“Behold, this is our God; We have waited for Him, and He will save us.

This is the Lord;
We have waited for Him; We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.”

(Pause for a count of 5)

This is the word of the Lord.

Resurrection Sunday (Easter Day) 1

Psalm 93

1 THE Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel; * the Lord hath put on his apparel, and girded himself with strength.

2 He hath made the round world so sure, * that it cannot be moved.

3 Ever since the world began, hath thy seat been prepared: * thou art from everlasting.

4 The floods are risen, O Lord, the floods have lift up their voice; * the floods lift up their waves.

5 The waves of the sea are mighty, and rage horribly; * but yet the Lord, who dwelleth on high, is mightier.

6 Thy testimonies, O Lord, are very sure: * holiness becometh thine house for ever.

Glory be...

Resurrection Sunday (Easter Day) 1

The New Testament is written in the third chapter of St. Paul's epistle to the Colossians, beginning at the first verse.

This passage may be found in the Book of Common Prayer on page 164.

(Pause to allow parishioners to find the page.)

IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

(Pause for a count of 5)

This is the word of the Lord.
