Fr. Brad Cunningham Appointed to APA Mission Board

At the beginning of March Bishop Walter Grundorf appointed Fr. Brad to the Mission Board which oversees our Church's activities in places such as India, the Philippines, Ecuador, and Haiti. The bishop also appointed Fr. Brad to be the liaison for the Board's work in Haiti. Fr. Brad will leave for Cap Haitian, Haiti, tomorrow (returning Friday) on a trip to meet our Haitian ministry partners and to assess the ministry's status and potential. The APA currently supports a mission parish, a school, and a poultry farm in Cap Haitian, Haiti.

Please pray for Fr. Brad and Fr. David Haines, Vicar-General of the Board, as they visit Haiti this week.

Bishop Grundorf Visit — April 6th

Bishop Walter Grundorf and his wife, Dr. Mary Grundorf, will be visiting Holy Trinity on Sunday, April 6th... please make plans to attend. We will celebrate The Order for Confirmation at the 10:30 AM Service.

Tartan Day — April 6th

Sunday, April 6th, is Tartan Day. If you have something "tartan" to wear, please do so. If you aren't sure if you belong to a Scottish clan, you can access a website and enter your name(s) to see to which clan your sept belongs. That website is www.scotclans.com.

Or, if you already know and just want to purchase something to wear (not necessarily a kilt) you have many places to turn. Some of the stores in the USA are reached thru your computer. They are:

www.kilts-n-stuff.com **

www.sportkilt.com *

www.stillwaterkilts.com *

www.jhiggins.net

www.utilikilts.com *

www.kiltmart.com **

www.kilts.com

www.heritagescotland.com

www.tartanandclan.com

There are plenty more, but be sure they can deliver by the 6th of April.

Inexpensive (*) Other tartan articles as well ()
