

Trinity Times Weekly Edition

Third Sunday in Advent
Week of December 13, 2015

Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Altar Flowers

The Roses adorning the Altar today are given to the Glory of God by Linda Neal and Harrison, and in thanksgiving and loving memory of Don Neal.

Birthday and Anniversary Blessings

Anyone wishing to receive a prayer and blessing will be invited to the Altar. Participation is not compulsory, but all, including visitors, are welcome.

Estimated Tithes and Offerings

Those who plan to support Holy Trinity with their tithes and offerings next year - and, have not already done so - are asked to prayerfully complete a 2016 Estimated Tithes and Offerings card and deposit it in the box near the baptismal font this Sunday. Thank you!

Parish Christmas Party, Friday, December 18th at 6:00 PM

We have invited our neighbors in Amelia Park to join Holy Trinity for a Christmas celebration. Scott-King Hall will be decorated for the Christmas holiday, and the Men's Group will supply a Christmas-themed third Friday dinner with music and joy for the season. Desserts would be welcomed.

Ring the Bells for Hope House

Holy Trinity provides bell ringers at Winn Dixie on 8th Street. Time slots are still open for Thursday Dec. 17, and Thursday Dec. 24 (½ day). A sign up sheet is available in Scott-King Hall.

Salvation Army / Hope House

Please place your donations of non-perishable food and new / gently-used clothing in the basket located in Scott-King Hall, and we'll deliver.

Micah's Place

A "needs" list is available in the parish office.

Blood Drive

If you are able, please donate and ask that your donation be credited to Holy Trinity's Account M-159. Holy Trinity's current account balance is 27 Units.

The New 2016 Lectio Divina

St. Benedict began the practice of Lectio Divina, reading the Scriptures prayerfully and contemplatively, asking always, "What is God speaking to me through his word?" This Benedictine practice is the core of Anglican Spirituality, and the foundation of the Book of Common Prayer's Lectionary, as well as, Morning and Evening Prayer.

To practice Lectio Divina, begin each day praying the Collect for the Second Sunday in Advent (BCP p.121 or 1928 p.92), then continue with each passage listed below. Read slowly, carefully, attentively.

Monday	Psalm 13	Matthew 21-22
Tuesday	Psalm 14	Matthew 23-24
Wednesday	Psalm 15	Matthew 25-26
Thursday	Psalm 16	Matthew 27
Friday	Psalm 17	Matthew 28
Saturday	Psalm 18	Hebrews 1 & 2

The Lectio Divina Prayer (Collect for The Second Sunday in Advent)

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Collect for The Season of Advent

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness, and put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious Majesty, to judge both the quick and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, now and ever. Amen.

About The New 2016 Lectio Divina

This Lectio Divina (Divine Reading) is a six month discipline to read the entire New Testament and Psalter, arranged in four sections headed by one of the Gospels. We are currently reading through the St. Matthew section which includes New Testament books originally written primarily for a Jewish / Hebrew audience, including St. Matthew and the catholic Epistles to the Hebrews and St. James.
