

Trinity Times Weekly Edition

First Sunday in Lent

Week of February 14, 2016

Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Altar Flowers

The dry, barren branches which adorn the Altar during the season of Lent remind us of Jesus' 40 days of fasting in the desert. We read of this event on the First Sunday of Lent, BCP p. 153, which sets the tone for the Holy Season.

Birthday and Anniversary Blessings

Anyone wishing to receive a prayer and blessing will be invited to the Altar. Participation is not compulsory, but all, including visitors, are welcome.

Mere Anglicanism Class Begins Wednesday, February 17th at 6:00 PM

For all those who have joined our parish or are considering membership, this class is designed for you. For lifelong Anglicans who might want to brush up on the basics of the faith, this class is designed for you, too.

Mere Anglicanism is an 8 week course taught by Fr. Brad+ each Wednesday from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. We will begin in the Chapel and conclude in Scott-King Hall. Note: there will be no class on the Wednesday following Resurrection Sunday (Easter).

A Lenten Cookbook by Holy Trinity Anglican Parishioners

Thanks to the diligence and persistence of Cindy McLaughlin and Lois Lang, HTAC has published a collection of recipes, submitted by the excellent cooks of our parish, which are helpful for the Lenten season. Each copy is available for a $10 donation to the Rector's Discretionary Fund.

Easter Pageant Practice - Sunday, Feb 14th at 12:15 PM

Please contact Mary Kay Young for details.

Third Friday Family Dinner will be a Lenten "Pot-Luck" Carry-in.

This Friday, Feb 19th, please make a plate, bowl or pot of one of your favorite Lenten dishes to share - please: no beef, pork, lamb, or poultry. Everything else is welcome. This is a true pot-luck, so there is no sign-up sheet. Dinner is free. Cold beverages will be provided. If you are unable to bring food, please come anyway. Guests are always welcome. Dinner will be served about 6 PM following the Stations of the Cross in the Chapel that begins at 5:30 PM. Questions may be directed to Andy Figueroa at andyfigueroa65@gmail.com or 912-227-5737.

Annual Parish Meeting - Sunday, February 28th at 9:15 AM

The Annual Parish Meeting will be held on the last Sunday of this month, February 28, in Scott-King Hall. The meeting will take place during the Sunday Bible College hour from 9:15-10:15 AM. Attendance is open to everyone and members of the parish are asked to vote for vestry representatives as well as delegates to Diocesan Synod and to give approval to the 2016 budget. Please plan to attend this important meeting.

Nominees for Vestry and Synod Delegates

After three years of outstanding service on the Vestry, Andy Figueroa and David Turner will rotate off the Vestry in February. These two men have nominated the following people to fill their vacated positions beginning in March to serve for a three-year term. (A more formal introduction of each candidate will be published in the coming weeks.)

Jim Robinson is a founding member of Holy Trinity Church and has served in many capacities throughout the years, especially regarding the building process and the financial operations of the parish. He would bring a wealth of experience and practical know-how to the vestry.

Mary Kay Young has been a member of Holy Trinity Church since the earliest day and is a candidate for Deaconess in the Anglican Province of America. Mary Kay is very active in the children's ministry of the parish and is a licensed therapist in her career. She, too, offers insight and ministry know-how to the vestry and the parish.

The NEW 2016 New Testament Lectio Divina (Divine Reading)

The Lectio Divina Prayer

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
