Twenty-First Sunday After Trinity
Week of October 16, 2016

Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Altar Flowers

The beautiful flowers adorning our Altar today are given to the Glory of God by Lois & Kim Laing and Cindy & Lanny McLaughlin, and in thanksgiving and loving memory of Brien Laing (Oct. 12, 1926 ~ Jan. 4, 2015).

The Altar flowers scheduled for October 9th (but, cancelled due to Hurricane Matthew) were to be given to the Glory of God by Darci & Patrick Lanaghan, and in celebration and thanksgiving of their 24th wedding anniversary (Oct. 6).

Birthday and Anniversary Blessings

Anyone wishing to receive a prayer and blessing will be invited to come forward. Participation is not compulsory, but all, including visitors to Holy Trinity are welcome.

Keep those Quarters c'LAING'ing!

The latest Laing Quarter Jar yielded $183. A little background: Brien Laing was asked (as a parishioner) to speak on a Sunday in 2008 on what the church meant to him in preparation for pledge week, and he took out two quarters, held them up and told his Mother's story as a part of what the church meant to him as a child. During the offering that Sunday, he dropped one of the quarters in the plate along with their family offering and Lois dropped the other, quite noisily, I might add. Other people followed this cue and ever since people have been dropping quarters along with their tithes and offerings in the alms basin. These quarters are designated for use by the ladies of the Altar guild to buy needed supplies for the Altar. A written retelling of Brien's testimony is available in the Narthax.
