Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

The Return of ALLELUIA! & The Holy Noise

Throughout Lent we have “fasted” from Alleluias in anticipation of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. As we celebrate this greatest of Feasts, we will shout Alleluia for the first time in over seven weeks! And we will shout Alleluia! while making a “Holy Noise!”: ringing bells, stomping feet, clanging pots or pans, slapping pews and shouting Alleluia at the top of our lungs. We have a box full of bells to share and everyone is invited to bring a bell from home - dinner bells, cow bells, jingle bells, any bells are welcome. Just be prepared to shout Alleluia! and make a “HOLY NOISE”!

What’s in a Name: Pascha, Resurrection Sunday, or Easter?

What should we call this day? It has been known by many names through the millennia. Today, most English speaking people call it Easter Day. (From the Book of Common Prayer, taken from an ancient festival held at the same time.) Most non-English speakers around the world call this day Pascha - a reference to the Old Testament Passover Feast which was fulfilled by the events of Holy Week and the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Others call this day Resurrection Sunday because that is what we celebrate. All three titles are acceptable, though Fr. Brad Cunningham prefers Pascha or Resurrection Sunday. Whatever we call it, this is a day to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, and through him, the promise of our own resurrection.

The Paschal Sunday Brunch

We will meet in Scott-King Hall for the Annual (delicious) Easter Brunch between the first and second Mass on Easter Sunday. We invite you all to bring your favorite Easter brunch entrée to serve as a “finger food” similar to a First Friday Fellowship. (Fr. Brad will be offering his Greek Bread Pudding with Lamb and Easter Sunrise Mimosas! - both grown-up and child-friendly versions). Other ideas include: anything with lamb, stuffed eggs, breakfast casseroles, hot cross buns, French toast, the list is endless!

Reception for the Baptized at Easter

Please join us in Scott-King Hall following the 10:30 AM Mass in honor of the newly Baptized Catalina Calingo. We will serve a special Baptism cake and other Easter desserts immediately following the Mass.

Thank you for Your Tithes and Offerings

“Do not neglect to do good, and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.” BCP p. 72 from Hebrews 13:16 (RSV-2CE)

Fr. Cunningham Thanks You!

Last Sunday Holy Trinity Church exceeded a long time dream. We had the most communicants we have ever had for a non-Easter, non-Trinity Sunday! Ten years in the making! Everyone deserves thanks and kudos for making this dream happen, and I am grateful to every member of HTC. In this issue, I owe a special debt of gratitude to:

Mary Aiello has brought more people to visit our church and more of her guests have joined our church than any other member. (One of whom will be baptized May 8th!)

Jack and Karen Weber are a close second to Mary A. They consistently invite everyone they know to visit and join. I am so grateful!

Michala Hopkins and Alyssa Susen, two of our youth, both baptized at HTC, have been instrumental in bringing visitors and new members to Holy Trinity - including today’s Baptizee and a couple soon to be married at HTAC! Well done!

To all: Mary, Karen, Jack, Michala and Alyssa I bestow upon you the honorarium, “Evangelists of Holy Trinity Church.” May God continue to bless your efforts and all our efforts for the Kingdom of our God and of His Christ!

St. Michael The Archangel & The New Blue Wall

The lovely statue of St. Michael currently on display in the Narthex was a gift to Holy Trinity Church. It is customary that Archangels be displayed in front of a blue field.

Thanks to those who gave St. Michael his new display.
