

Trinity Times Weekly Edition

The Second Sunday In Advent
Week of December 7, 2014

Holy Trinity Anglican Church

Altar Flowers

It is the custom during Advent to place evergreens on the Altar as a sign of our undying hope in the return of Christ and our resurrection to everlasting life.

Please Welcome our Guest Organist — Martha Skirven

Seminary Support Sunday - December 7th

If you desire to give, please make a separate check to Holy Trinity Church and mark the memo: "Seminarian Fund."

"Several years ago, Bishop Grundorf designated the Second Sunday in Advent as "Seminarian Support Sunday." All of us know that a quality seminary education is expensive usually costing thousands of dollars per year. This cost often places an undue hardship on our men who are in seminary and their families. Please accept this reminder that it is important to contribute towards our Seminarian Fund on the Second Sunday in Advent. Designated monies collected should be forwarded to D.J. Fulton, the diocesan treasurer, to help alleviate that hardship. God Bless You, and please pray for our seminarians and the Board of Examining Chaplains.

*The Rev. Canon Raymond Unterburger,
For the Board of Examining Chaplains"*

Columbarium Update / Niches Now Available

After an unexpected delay caused by permitting issues, the Columbarium construction is underway. With this announcement, the Vestry has established sales criteria for the Columbarium niches and plaques for the Memorial Towers. Holy Trinity members interested in purchasing a niche or a plaque, please see Fr. Brad Cunningham for an appointment to go over the information and make your purchases.
