The Twentieth Sunday After Trinity

Week of October 29th, 2017

Holy Trinity Anglican Church & Lindisfarne Hall

Fernandina Beach, Florida

Quote of the Week

"Wise teachers of the spiritual life remind us of something we seem often to forget: Our Lives as Christians are not all about single, life-changing crisis experiences. The revivalist imagery of sawdust-trail conversions and emotional "altar calls" may lead some modern Christians to seek a sudden, emotional experience as the solution to their ills, but that's not how it works. John Wesley (an Anglican priest) reminds us that those powerful moments of repentance and coming to Faith are just the "porch" or the "door" into the Christian Life. The substance of the Christian Life, which lasts as long as we live, is holiness. Wesley had a favorite phrase to explain holiness. He says it is, "having the mind of Christ and walking as he walked."

~ Medieval Wisdom for Modern Christians by Chris Armstrong page 222.

Altar Flowers

The lovely flowers adorning the Altar today are given to the Glory of God by Laura & Chuck Farmer, in thanksgiving and celebration of their 52nd anniversary (October 30).

Thank you from Haiti

Thanks to all who signed the sympathy card and donated to the Faissa Guerrier Memorial Fund. $300.00 was contributed and sent through the Diocese's established means, some designated to assist with funeral costs and most to help fund the ministry of our school in Cap Haitian, Haiti. Your compassion is making a difference.

Spotlight on Ministry: Altar Guild

The Altar Guild serves to support the worship and Sacraments of the Church. Whenever there is a Service in the Chapel, Altar Guilders set the Table, fill the oil lamps, set the paraments and myriad other tasks, then, afterwards, they clean the sacred vessels and store them until their next use. Once a month, Altar Guilders gather to polish silver and brass, mend and tend the linens and paraments, care for the vestments of the priest, and accomplish many other essential duties. It is difficult to overstate how important the work of the Altar Guild is in the life of this parish, and I, as Rector, am so grateful for the excellence, efficiency, and organization which mark the ministry of our Altar Guild.
