Did You Know We Have Services Six Days a Week?

The life of a devout Anglican is built around the liturgies of The Daily Offices of Morning and Evening Prayer. Here at Holy Trinity Church, we offer sung Morning Prayer (also called Matins) every week, along with a Wednesday noontime Eucharist. Everyone is invited to join us for these beautiful and foundational times of prayer.

- ♦ Monday - Thursday: 8:00 - 8:30 AM Sung Morning Prayer (Matins)
- ♦ Friday: 8:00 - 8:30 AM Morning Prayer with the Great Litany
- ♦ Wednesday: 12:15 - 1:00 PM Holy Communion (Mass) and Healing Service

Vestry Meeting, Thursday, January 17th at 4:00 PM, in Scott-King Hall

Matching Grant for Haiti!

One of the great needs for our mission parishes and school in Haiti is provision of reliable transportation for our priests and deacons. The diocese has long desired to provide motorcycles for the clergy in Haiti and has worked out a contract price of $1,500 each plus licensing and fees. Thanks to the generosity of two of our parishioners, we have the opportunity to receive a matching grant of up to $2,000.00 for these reliable motorbikes. This means for every dollar we raise in donations, that dollar will be matched, doubling the amount. If we raise the amount needed, to purchase and license one motorcycle, the matching grant would ensure we could provide two bikes for the clergy. Please consider donating to this cause which runs throughout the Epiphany season. You may write a check and mark it "Haiti Motorcycle" or place cash in an envelope marked the same. Above all, please keep our churches, school, clergy and all our brethren in Christ in your constant prayers.
