An Anglican Parish in the English Catholic Tradition

My Peace I Give You. Alleluia!

What's in a Name: Low Sunday

The First Sunday after Easter, aka the Octave of Easter, is commonly known as "Low Sunday." According to the Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church this Sunday gained this name because, following the elaborate, "high" ritual and liturgy of Holy Week and Easter, the return to "normal" or "low" practices, might seem sparse or plain. However, most people call today "Low Sunday" because many parishes report their highest attendance of the year on Easter Sunday and their lowest attendance one week later! Thanks be to God, this has never been the case at Holy Trinity Church, in either regard. Please join us for Mass this Sunday as we celebrate the rich and beautiful Liturgy of Eastertide, and help us continue dispelling the notion of "Low Sunday" meaning "low attendance!"

Thank you for Your Tithes and Offerings

"Do not neglect to do good, and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God." BCP p. 72 from Hebrews 13:16 (RSV-2CE)

First Friday Fellowship, May 6th, Cinco de Mayo and Shrimp Fest

A lot is going on during the first weekend in May. Cinco de Mayo, the Mexican Independence Day, is the perfect excuse to indulge in our favorite Latino dishes. What's more, Amelia Island will be celebrating our post-pandemic Shrimpfest - the perfect reason to imbibe in local shrimp and seafood. Join us for our First Friday Fellowship on May 6th at 6:00 PM in Scott-King Hall. Bring a Mexican or Latino or shrimp or seafood finger-food to share, and we will have a party. (Shrimp Tacos, anyone?) Don't forget to try the Cunningham's favorite, Orxata! (horchata), the cold, refreshing drink from Latin America.

Fr. Cunningham Thanks You!

David Joslyn and the 2022 Easter Egg Hunt - Thanks go out to David for organizing, executing and celebrating the annual Easter Egg Hunt! His efforts brought almost 20 young children to Holy Trinity Church for the event.

Well done, David!

The Last-to-Leave: I am elated, happy, thrilled with everything about our Holy Week and Resurrection Sunday, and I am truly grateful to all who made it possible. This week I must acknowledge the dear saints who I call the Last-to-Leave. Perhaps the least favorite task in our ministry is cleaning up after "big events." I know it is my least favorite! However, there are some who, week after week and month after month, chose to serve us all by cleaning "until it's clean." They deserve our thanks and praise: Joan Drawdy, Laura & Jeff Dallman, Corinne & Doug Woodcock, Karen & Jack Weber, and Patricia & Oliver Janney, to name just a few. As the person who turns out the lights, locks the doors and departs last of all, I can witness and certify, these folks deserve a grand thanks and a pat on the back.

In particular, on Easter Sunday, Joan, Corinne and Doug were the "Last-to-Leave" as they worked to ensure everything was finished to the best of their abilities! They get my grand Kudos. Well Done, and Thank You! In my native speech, "Ya'll done gone an' showed out! Bless ye." Which being interpreted means, "You did an outstanding service. May God richly reward you."
